

TIP GALLANT FLYING HOME.

AT LAST A DAY OF CLEAN RACING.

Reversals of Form Were Not Apparent in Events at the Morris Park Track.

Racing at Westchester yesterday was fairly interesting and clean. It is a pleasure not to be obliged to write of form reversals all of the time. It becomes monotonous and a disagreeable task.

The surprise of the day was the easy victory of Oom Paul over a good class field composed of Rockwater, South Trimbles, Igler and Col. Bill. In this race Oom Paul won very nicely by two lengths, while Rockwater, South Trimbles and Igler ran heads apart.

There are two ways of accounting for Oom Paul's victory. One is that he is a cold-water horse; for there are some horses which are at their best in the early spring and late fall, when the air is cool and crisp—and the other is that some of the horses that finished behind him have gone back. It is very probable that the latter is the case.

Rockwater going back. Rockwater seems to be pulling off. She appeared to sink at the end of half the journey yesterday, but changed her mind and came on again under a vigorous grueling. Col. Bill was shown again, and the fact that he ran last does not in the least excuse the very bad ride he put up on him on the previous occasion. At that he ran below his form taking a line through the field and their last race at seven furlongs.

The Silver Brook Stakes went to Pater, who ran five and a half furlongs in 1:02, beating the track record by half a second. Cinquevall was second, and as he was only beaten two lengths it is fair to presume that he ran in record time.

Smith's Cause for Jubilation. This fact was the cause of much jubilation on the part of the spectators. The fact that Cinquevall was the colt that beat Merry Acrobat and how could Merry Acrobat, a maiden, expect to beat a record-breaker like Cinquevall. Smith did not take into consideration the fact that a strong wind was blowing straight down the chute, helping the horses along. Any one who has noted the time of races down the Eclipse Course knows that time is not of the slightest possible value. If an argument on the time basis is to be used, the fact that Cinquevall was a record-breaker, finished so far behind Cinquevall in the last race, covered the Eclipse Course in 1:10 on Monday, so the fallacy of arguing on time as shown down the Eclipse is very plain.

Rivalry of Lyne and Redfern. The rivalry between Lyne and Redfern at Westchester is very keen. When racing began yesterday Lyne was in the lead by one mile. Neither boy scored up to the fifth race, when Redfern in a brilliant finish on Huttera, caught Cameron, ridden by Lyne, and won by five jumps and noed him out. It was then a tie between the pair, but as Lyne had a pull on the last race, he regained his lead and still has Redfern beaten by one mile. Lyne has ridden twelve winners, Redfern eleven, and Odom is third with nine to his credit.

PENNSYLVANIA VS. ANNAPOLIS.

(Special to The Evening World.) ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 22.—The Pennsylvania football team and substitutes arrived at Annapolis at 2:15 for their game this afternoon with the Annapolis midshipmen. Since Pennsylvania was defeated by Brown University on Saturday, and the Middles have been showing great improvement, the Annapolis team expected to win from the Quakers today. Both teams had several substitutes in the game on account of a number of regular men being on the hospital list. Howard Oak, Wilson and McNaught were all in new positions today. Weede started in at quarter for Pennsylvania.

The Line-Up. Pennsylvania. Forwards: Howard Oak, Wilson, McNaught, Carpenter, Metzer, R.E. Backs: Oak, Plank, R.G. Line: Belknap, Dick, R.E. Quarter: Alken, Weede, R.E. Half: Smith, Gardner, R.H. Full: Wilson, Bennett, L.H. Straubinger.

Score—First Half—0, of P. 6, Navy 5.

PRINCETON, 23, DICKINSON, O.

(Special to The Evening World.) PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 22.—The Tigers and the Dickinson team clashed this afternoon on the gridiron. Although Princeton has been making several experiments in the way of shifting men, they put the old combination in first. This line-up may be changed for the Columbia game. As much as could be gained by favorable weather conditions was gained this afternoon.

All the men felt somewhat the exhilarating effect, and put much more snap and aggressiveness in their play than has been seen this season. Both teams played hard. Princeton was anxious to make as large a score as possible against the Pennsylvanians, and thus give the team hope of victory in the remaining game of the season.

First Half. Princeton in very loose playing made two touch-downs against the Pennsylvanians in the first half. Kafer scored first touch-down on a hurdle play over a delayed pass. The half was rather a disappointment in that the Dickinson team made four first downs and gave the heavier Princeton team much trouble in running around ends. Dewitt kicked the second goal.

LOCAL AMATEUR BEATS BOSTON MAN

"Willie" Schumacher Wins Fast Four-Round "Go" from Mike Conroy at Boston.

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 22.—William Schumacher, of New York, the champion 105-pound man, successfully defended his title here last night and got the decision over Mike Conroy, of South Boston, after four rounds of fast fighting. The bout was scheduled to go three rounds, but the extra round was needed to decide the winner.

This was the star bout of the Lenox Athletic Club's amateur tournament. Conroy made his first appearance in the ring and gave a good account of himself, although beaten.

James Segre, of Somerville, was awarded the decision over Barney Dodd, of New York, in a special 115-pound go.

Young Corbett and Young Erno, the little Philadelphia fighter, will meet in a six-round go before the Washington Club, in that city, next Monday night. Erno expects to make a good showing with the champion.

Patsy Sweeney, the Manchester lightweight, denies that he is to meet Twin Sullivan, of Boston. Instead, he goes to Chicago to take on Martin Duffy, and later will meet Gans in Boston.

The National Sporting Club, of London, is anxious to get Terry McGovern to fight in England and has offered a purse of $2,000 for a fight between the American and Ben Jordan. The conditions suggested are twenty rounds at 122 pounds.

Jordan is ready to meet the ex-champion, but insists on a side bet of $1,500. McGovern is considering the matter.

BASEBALL MAGNATES IN SESSION TO-MORROW.

President Powers Calls Meeting in Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Baseball men from all over the country are in the city to-day prepared to attend the meeting of the National Association of the Professional Baseball Leagues, which has been called by President P. T. Powers for to-morrow afternoon.

The meeting will be held in the Fifth Avenue Hotel, but the Victoria Hotel will be the headquarters of the organization.

About a hundred leagues are represented in the association, and presidents of clubs and their secretaries will attend the conference. Just what business is to be done has not been learned.

President Powers has invited the visiting managers of the league to the Victoria Hotel to-morrow evening.

More races exclusively for gentlemen riders should be given, for then there would be the keenest sort of rivalry, while the infusion of new blood would advance the interests of the sport.

FOREIGN COURT TENNIS PLAYERS IN GAMES HERE.

"Punch" and Broquides Will Play at Racquet and Tennis Club.

Cecil Fairs, "Punch," of London, and Emile Broquides, of France, two recognized European court tennis champions, will meet in a series of games at the New York Racquet and Tennis Club, beginning Saturday. The arrangements for the contests were made through T. Saffern Taylor.

NEW CHALLENGER TO GET HANDICAP.

Shamrock III. Will be Long on Water Line and Short Over All to Beat Measurement Rule.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Preliminary work on Shamrock III. is progressing. Like her predecessor, she will be close up to ninety feet, the water line limit, but she will be much shorter over all. The new challenger will also be low in all other taxed measurements and under the rules would receive a time allowance from the Columbia.

The morning play ended as follows: Harvard. Holes. Princeton. Holes. H. B. Hollis, Jr., 100. P. R. Payne, 20. W. C. Egan, 10. J. H. Conklin, 10. W. C. Egan, 10. J. H. Conklin, 10. W. C. Egan, 10. J. H. Conklin, 10.

Harvard and Princeton Left to Do Battle for College Golf Honors.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Oct. 22.—Harvard and Princeton, the survivors of the five teams to start yesterday, played a 36-hole match to-day over the links of the Morris County Golf Club, to determine the team championship of the Intercollegiate Golf Association. The teams were made up the same as yesterday and eighteen holes were played before lunch.

More YACHTING TALENT FOR SIR THOMAS LIPTON.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Sir Thomas Lipton has appointed another aid to his efforts in the arrangement for the trial races to precede the international yacht races next summer. Col. Sharman Crawford, vice-commander of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, is the man and he will work in conjunction with Designer Fife.

Col. Crawford will also go to America with the Shamrock III. and will sail on the challenger in the race.

FORDHAM MEETS PLATZ NORMAL.

(Special to The Evening World.) FORDHAM, N. Y., Oct. 22.—The eleven of New Platz Normal College met Fordham here to-day. Martin and Hand showed up so well in practice that they have been given positions on the "Varsity." A good crowd was present during the first half.

Grace A. C. Smoker. The Grace A. C. Smoker at the clubhouse, No. 415, East Thirtieth street, was a great success. The entertainment consisted of singing and dancing, a feature being a three-round bout between two of the members, which was decided a draw.

CALLAHAN AND YANGER TO-NIGHT.

Pair Will Come Together in Six-Round Bout at Philadelphia's Penn Art Club.

Local sporting folk are greatly interested in the fight between Benny Yanger, the Chicago feather-weight, and Tim Callahan, which is to be decided before the Penn Art Athletic Club in Philadelphia to-night. Since Yanger began fighting he has attracted considerable attention, but to Easterners he is only known by his record. He has not been seen in action in this part of the country before, and just what can be expected of him in his six-round bout with Terry McGovern on Nov. 1 in Chicago may be learned by his performance to-night. Callahan is nearly light-weight now, and, as Yanger weighs about 122 pounds in condition, it cannot be expected that he will score a knock-out.

Want McGovern in England. English sporting people are still anxious to have Terry McGovern visit them. Doc Ordway, the American representative of the National Sporting Club, is in receipt of a cablegram offering Terry a purse of $2,500 for a twenty-round bout with Ben Jordan, to take place in December. Jordan, the cable says, will insist on a $1,000 side bet if the match is made. It is not unlikely that Terry will go to England this winter, and then—poor Jordan.

To Prevent Ryan-O'Brien Fight. Although the Penn Art Athletic Club, of Philadelphia, has Tommy Ryan and "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien signed to box a six-round bout on Oct. 30, it isn't likely that the contest will take place. The International Athletic Club, of Port Erie, claims to have first call on both men's services, and the officials of that organization say they will adopt legal measures to prevent the bout in the Quaker City if necessary.

Corbett to Begin Training. Young Corbett, the feather-weight champion, intends to get into first-class condition for his bout with Austin Rice, which is to be decided before the Waters Athletic Club in Connecticut, where he prepared for his second bout with Terry McGovern, either Friday or Saturday. Corbett wants to prove conclusively that he is entitled to a title due to a titleholder, and thinks by defeating Rice he will earn new friends.

Jimmy Stone, the great little bantam-weight champion, secured a match with one of Boston's best little boys. He is Pete Brooks. The bout will be of four rounds' duration and will be decided before the Lenox A. C., of Boston, next Wednesday night.

CHILDREN'S ARM WENT BACK ON HIM IN COAST FIGHT. JOHNSON IS GIVEN DECISION AT END OF TWELFTH ROUND. LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 22.—The fight last night between Frank Childs, of Chicago, and Jack Johnson, of Bakersfield, ended in the twelfth round when Childs's seconds threw up the sponge, claiming that their principal had dislocated his elbow.

The injury is supposed to have been received in training and Childs claimed the arm went back on him during the fight.

BOSTON SIGNS PITCHER GIBSON. BOSTON, Ill., Oct. 22.—Norwood T. Gibson, of this city, who played for the Kansas City Western League team last season, has signed to pitch for the Boston team of the American League next year. His contract calls for $3,000 for the season.

TIP GALLANT WAS ONCE SOLD FOR $50. The Great Jumper's Price Is Now Placed at $5,000 by Owner. Racegoers are talking of the great jumper, Tip Gallant, to-day. His two performances at Morris Park have impressed all, and when it was known that the son of Tip Gallant-Vesper was sold as a two-year-old for $50, great wonder was expressed. Red Crocker, who owns the horse, now wants more for him.

Mr. Holland and the Winner. Steeplechases for gentlemen riders are popular and more of them ought to be given. Some of the gentlemen riders have taken part in many races this season and have won not a few. Harry Page, Ambrose Clark, William Hayes and Sid Holloway are among the more prominent.

Mr. Page won the Annual Champion, the richest steeplechase prize of the year, valued at $9,000. He rode his own horse, Self-Protection, handled the horse extremely well, and by a well judged and patient ride landed the rich stake.

Two years ago Mr. Smith won the same stake on his horse, The Cad. Mr. Clark has ridden quite a number of winners, having in his stable Rowdy, Rising Sun and other splendid performers.

Mr. Holloway is one of the best of the amateur riders, but has not had many opportunities. He has just begun to gather a stable together. Mr. Hayes has not shone to advantage, either, because he always rides his own horses and the stable has been unfortunately this season. Few excel Mr. Hayes as a horseman.
